

Copyright and the Classroom: Understanding Appropriate Use of Copyrighted Material

Presentation

Tuesday, January 10, 2012
11:15 am - 12:45 pm

Ponderosa H 123
2074 Lower Mall

RSVP:
<http://tinyurl.com/CHETKirchner>

JOY KIRCHNER, Scholarly Communications Coordinator and Coordinator for UBC's copyright education programming will be providing an overview of UBC's Copyright and Fair Dealing guidelines; an understanding of use permissions for copyrighted materials and licensed material for classroom, research and instructional use and an understanding of authors' rights via publisher agreements.

A key member of UBC's Copyright Advisory Group and a member of the Provost's campus-wide Scholarly Communications Steering Committee, she is the point person for open access, copyright and author rights queries on campus and is responsible for formalized discussion and education of these issues with faculty, research and publishing constituencies on the UBC campus. Joy writes and presents widely on author rights, copyright and open access. In addition, she is a faculty member with the ARL/ACRL/ Institute for Scholarly Communication, the Coordinator for the Association of College & Research Libraries much lauded Scholarly Communications Roadshow workshop series and is a Visiting Scholar with ACRL.

The role of Scholarly Communications Coordinator at UBC, involves identifying recommended and sustainable service models to support scholarly communication activities on the campus.

Feel free to bring your lunch

Questions:
kjell.rubenson@ubc.ca or joanne.oconnor@ubc.ca

