Doctoral Summer School at Roskilde University

August the 10th to the 20th 2010

Hosted by the Graduate School of Lifelong Learning

Theme: -

Lifelong Learning - inside and outside education

The Summer School is a stimulating scholarly setting in which highly qualified and challenging discussions take place.

We advocate a multi-cultural, multi-national, multi-paradigmatic approach to (qualitative) research in different settings like lectures, international symposium and intensive workshops, where Ph.D. students present research papers - and excursions and leisure activities.

BITS AND BITES

ANCIE Bulletin - English Language Learners

This edition of the ANCIE Bulletin entitled English Language Learners examines struggles newcomer children may face in learning a new language in British Columbia and actions educators and service providers can take to help children. You may access the bulletin in PDF format on this email or on the ANCIE website at http://www.amssa.org/ancie/ancie\_bulletins.php. If you would like to subscribe or unsubscribe, please email Rishima at newcomerchildren@amssa.org.

Dominic Maku

It is with great sadness that I inform you of the death of Dominic Maku an EdD student in Educational Studies. He died on Friday, May 21 in Surrey from liver cancer. He was diagnosed in February and there were no promising treatment options. Dominic had been working steadily on the proposal for his dissertation which was going to be a critical analysis of structural adjustment policies and their impact on schools in Uganda...his country of birth.
